The Collect of The Day

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson.....I Samuel 1:4-20

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?" After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: "O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head." As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine." But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him." And she said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer. They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."

From 1 Samuel 2:1-10

Tantum ergo Sacramentum Veneremur cernui, Et antiquum documentum

 Procedenti ab utroque Compar sit laudatio. Amen.—St. Thomas Aquinas

Therefore we, before him bending, this great Sacrament revere; Type and shadows have their ending, For the newer rite is here; Faith, our outward sense befriending, Makes the inward vision clear. Glory let us give, and blessing To the Father and the Son; Honor, might, and praise addressing, While eternal ages run; Ever too his love confessing, Who, from both, with both, is one.

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

- 3 Talk no more so very proudly,
let not arrogance come from your | mouth; *
for the LORD is a God of knowledge,
and by him actions are | weighed.
- 4 The bows of the mighty are | broken, *
but the feeble gird on | strength.
- 5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
but those who were hungry are fat with | spoil. *
The barren has borne seven,
but she who has many children is for | lorn.
- 6 The LORD kills and brings to | life; *
he brings down to Sheol and raises | up.
- 7 The LORD makes poor and makes | rich; *
he brings low, he also ex | alts.
- 8 He raises up the poor from the dust;
he lifts the needy from the ash heap,
to make them sit with princes
and inherit a seat of | honor. *
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
and on them he has set the | world.
- 9 He will guard the feet of his faithful ones,
but the wicked shall be cut off in | darkness; *
for not by might does one pre | vail.
- 10 The LORD! His adversaries shall be shattered;
the Most High will thunder in | heaven. *
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth;
he will give strength to his king,
and exalt the power of his a | noointed."

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. [And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds," he also adds, "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more." Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.] Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hymn 438....."Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord"

The Gospel.....Mark 13:1-8

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!" Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down." When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs."

All baptized Christians are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Communion is distributed at the altar rail and at a "standing station" at the base of the chancel steps. Persons wishing to receive at the standing station will please form a line on the "pulpit side" of the center aisle. Persons receiving at the rail will form a line on the "lectern side" of the center aisle. If you are unable to come forward to receive, please notify one of the ushers, and communion will be brought to your pew. Those persons desiring special prayers for healing with the laying on of hands are invited to go to the chapel after receiving communion. A lay prayer minister or a member of the clergy will be there to pray with you.

CONCERNING THE PETITIONS FOR U.S. ARMED SERVICE PERSONNEL

Since late April, 2008, there has been a petition in the Prayers of the People in which we have prayed, by name for 15 American casualties in the Iraqi War.

Presently we have recited nearly 1100 names. As of this announcement's writing, 4,362 U.S. military personnel have died in Iraq (141 additional casualties this year). Operation Iraqi Freedom began in March, 2003. As you know, prior to the beginning of the war in Iraq, there was another war being waged in Afghanistan. Operation Enduring Freedom began in October, 2001. In the eight years since the beginning of this action, 918 U.S. have died in service to this country there. 2009 has been the deadliest year of Operation Enduring Freedom – 288 U.S. casualties so far.

Beginning today the petition for U.S. personnel will list 10 casualties from Iraq and 5 casualties from Afghanistan. Plans for a vigil service for Memorial Day weekend, 2010 are in the works. At this vigil service we will take up the reading of names around the clock until we have read every remaining name on the lists.

AWESOME!!

Awesome—is just the perfect word to describe the silent auction held for outreach on November 7th. The donations, the bidding, costumes, and fellowship was the best ever. Thanks to each of you who helped make the auction a success. Thank you so much to the planning committee who all worked to make this happen. We have over $10,000 to share with organizations in need. Thank you Trinity ~ Jill and Melissa Paradowski

WHERE IS THE RECTOR?

Gary Manning left for the airport this morning following the 8 a.m. liturgy. Today he is traveling to Baltimore to participate in training sponsored by the Virginia Theological Seminary and the Lilly Foundation. The Foundation awarded VTS a grant to provide additional training and clergy mentors for new VTS graduates during the first three years of their ordained ministry. Gary has been selected to be one of the mentors for this program. He will return to Wauwatosa on Tuesday evening, November 17.

1-2-3 Magic

Meets in the Lounge
at 11:00 am

The PARENT NETWORK presents an effective discipline technique called 1-2-3 Magic.

This deceptively easy technique is fun to learn and really does work like magic! In 1-2-3 Magic you will learn how to manage testing and manipulation, how to handle misbehaving in public and how to avoid the talk-persuade-argue and yell syndrome. This class is for parents of 2 year olds to 12 year olds.

Please join Parent Educator Meredith Weir and Emily Vaill Pfaff as they guide you through this amazing journey to a more peaceful household.

Forgot to sign up for the potluck brunch today? Join us anyway for food and fellowship after the 9:30 am service.

EYC will meet this evening for sub-sandwich/movie night beginning at 5:00pm until 7:00 pm.

TAIZÉ

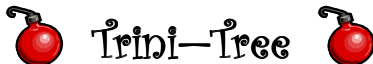

Take an hour to join the clergy, the Parish Choir, Gene Traas, and other musicians, for a very different prayerful experience.
Next Sunday evening, November 22, at 5:00 pm
